

Resolution in Support of the Women's March Movement

WHEREAS, New Haven Teachers Association is committed to CTA's Strategic Plan emphasis on Social Justice, Equity and Diversity to secure a more just, equitable, and Democratic society

WHEREAS, members of NHTA, CTA and NEA participated in the Historic Women's March on January 21, 2017 across the United States

WHEREAS, this noted world solidarity was in direct response to the growing actions by President Trump through Executive Order and his trampling on the constitutional rights of all people

WHEREAS, the violation of these rights in the area of choice, religion, immigration and equitable treatment of women will not be accepted,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that NHTA stands in support and belief in the Women's March and the movement towards equity and social justice for all

And be it further RESOLVED that NHTA will support and participate in activities and events that are in concert with the efforts to stop the unjust implementation of governmental orders and guidelines

And be finally RESOLVED that NHTA will work with local, statewide and national union organizations, local Boards of Education, City Councils and other elected officials to resist and overcome this current climate of hate and prejudice brought on by this President's philosophy of governmental administration.

Adopted by NHTA Representative Council on the 1st of February, 2017

Paul B. Stickland
NHTA President
